4. Client acceptance policy and client due diligence measures, including requirements for proper identification , adopt client acceptance policies and procedures which are sensitive to the risk of ML and TF
5. Undertake Client Due Diligence measures to an extent that is sensitive to the risk of ML and TF depending on the type of client, business relationship and/or transaction
6. Develop staff members' awareness and vigilance
7. Maintain records;
8. Compliance with relevant statutory and regulatory requirements;

9. Co-operation with the relevant law enforcement authorities, including the timely disclosure of information; and
10. Role of internal audit or compliance function to ensure compliance with policies, procedures, and controls relating to prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing, including the testing of the system for detecting suspected money laundering transactions, evaluating and checking the adequacy of exception reports generated on large and/or irregular transactions, the quality of reporting of suspicious transactions and the level of awareness of front line staff of their responsibilities in this regard. The internal audit function shall be independent, adequately resourced and commensurate with the size of the business and operations, organization structure, number of clients and other such factors.

CUSTOMER DUE DILIGENCE PROCESS

We shall obtain sufficient information in order to identify persons who beneficially own or control securities/commodity account. Whenever it is apparent that the securities/commodities acquired or maintained through an account are beneficially owned by a party other than the client, that party should be identified using client identification and verification procedures. In-order to carry out the due diligence process, we may rely on a third party only for the purpose of:

1. Identification and verification of the identity of a client and
2. Determination of whether the client is acting on behalf of a beneficial owner, identification of the beneficial owner and verification of the identity of the beneficial owner. Understand the ownership and control structure of the client;
3. For the purposes of identifying beneficial ownership and control, following shall be verified:

For clients other than individuals or trusts: Where the client is a person other than an individual or trust, viz., company, partnership or unincorporated association/body of individuals, we shall identify beneficial owners of the client and take reasonable measures to verify the identity of such persons, through the following information:

1. The identity of the natural person, who, whether acting alone or together, or through one or more juridical person, exercises control through ownership or who ultimately has a controlling ownership interest.

Explanation: Controlling ownership interest means ownership of/entitlement to:

1. more than 25% of shares or capital or profits of the juridical person, where the juridical person is a company;
 2. more than 15% of the capital or profits of the juridical person, where the juridical person is a partnership; or
 3. more than 15% of the property or capital or profits of the juridical person, where the juridical person is an unincorporated association or body of individuals.
2. In cases, where there exists doubt for the above, as to whether the person with the controlling ownership interest is the beneficial owner or where no natural person exerts control through ownership interests, the identity of the natural person exercising control over the juridical person through other means.

Explanation: Control through other means can be exercised through voting rights, agreement, arrangements or in any other manner.

3. Where no natural person is identified under above clauses, identity of the relevant natural person who holds the position of senior managing official.

For client which is a trust: Where the client is a trust, we shall identify the beneficial owners of the client and take reasonable measures to verify the identity of such persons, through the identity of the settler of the trust, the trustee, the protector, the beneficiaries with 15% or more interest in the trust and any other natural person exercising ultimate effective control over the trust through a chain of control or ownership.

Exemption in case of listed companies: Where the client or the owner of the controlling interest is a company listed on a stock exchange, or is a majority-owned subsidiary of such a company, it would not be necessary to identify and verify the identity of any shareholder or beneficial owner of such companies.

Applicability for foreign investors: Registered intermediaries dealing with foreign investors' may be guided by SEBI Master Circular SEBI/HO/AFD-2/CIR/P/2022/175 dated December 19,2022 and amendments thereto, if any, for the purpose of identification of beneficial ownership of the client;

4. Conduct ongoing due diligence and scrutiny, i.e. Perform ongoing scrutiny of the transactions and account throughout the course of the business relationship to ensure that the transactions being conducted are consistent with the registered intermediary's knowledge of the client, its business and risk profile, taking into account, where necessary, the client's source of funds;
5. We shall on best effort basis periodically update all documents, data or information of all clients and beneficial owners collected under the Client Due Diligence process

While dealing with clients in high risk countries where the existence/effectiveness of money laundering control is suspect, intermediaries apart from being guided by the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) statements that identify countries that do not or insufficiently apply the FATF Recommendations, published by the FATF on its website (www.fatf-gafi.org), shall also independently access and consider other publicly available information.

RISK MANAGEMENT

1. Risk Based Approach: Factors of risk perception (in terms of monitoring suspicious transactions) of the client are clearly defined having regard to clients' location (registered office address, correspondence addresses and other addresses if applicable), nature of business activity, trading turnover etc. and manner of making payment for transactions undertaken. These parameters should enable classification of clients into low, medium and high risk. Clients of special category may, if necessary, be classified even higher. Such clients require higher degree of due diligence and regular update of KYC profile on best effort basis. In line with the risk- based approach, type and amount of identification information and documents that registered intermediaries shall obtain necessarily depend on the risk category of a particular client.

2. Risk Assessment : We shall carry out risk assessment to identify, assess and take effective measures to mitigate its money laundering and terrorist financing risk with respect to its clients, countries or geographical areas, nature and volume of transactions, payment methods used by clients, etc. any country specific information that is circulated by the Government of India and SEBI from time to time, as well as, the updated list of individuals and entities who are subjected to sanction measures as required under the various United Nations' Security Council Resolutions. The assessment where applicable may be documented, updated regularly and made available to competent authorities and self-regulating bodies, as and when required.

TRANSACTION MONITORING

1. Regular monitoring of transactions is vital for ensuring effectiveness of the AML procedures. We shall pay special attention to all complex unusually large transactions / patterns which appear to have no economic purpose. The RMS team shall specify internal threshold limits for each class of client accounts and pay special attention to transactions which exceeds these limits. RMS team under online and compliance under offline surveillance keep track of the transactions
